

Camp 'DRESS' code

Proverbs 22:3 Sensible people will see trouble coming and avoid it, but an unthinking person will walk right into it and regret it later.

As God's Word above implies: Sensible people will see trouble coming and avoid it. Experience has shown us that in life there are things that we cannot change but there are many things that we can. One of these is the way we dress.

Because of the „style” of dress in the world in recent years, we have had to create a „Dress Code” for camp. Our leaders have to be aware of how they dress, especially when teaching or taking part in the spiritual program.

Queen Elizabeth II noticed with displeasure the clothes that people were wearing when they came to Royal Ascot. So she decided that it was time to reimplement her wish that clothes which showed too much bare body were not allowed at her race course.

She realised that elsewhere in the country people wore what they wanted, but this is her course and so she could implement her wishes.

The rules included, no short skirts, or dresses with bare backs or bare shoulders, the rules go even as far as the measurements of dresses, and tops and even the tops straps.

At the entrance someone controls the straps on dresses with a ruler.

If an earthly Queen has a Dress code for a race track, we who proclaim to be christian should show respect to the King of Kings in how we dress.

The same goes for the Vatican and St. Peters church and St Peters Square in Rome....the Swiss guards will not allow anyone in who are not properly dressed, shoulders must be covered and long trousers/skirts worn.

When visitors come to visit we would really appreciate your co-operation in this area when visiting camp, especially the girls/ladies. Low cleavages are very embarrassing and draws attention from the boys, especially when bending down.

We have been stressing this subject at our camp training weekend for the past few years, and our leaders are mostly conforming, when they don't, I have to let them know, and so far they have been good at changing to more suitable attire.

I trust this will be accepted in the spirit that it comes, we don't mean to offend anyone, but we do trust that we can overcome this.

Every blessing,
Wilma, Vio and CpC team.
